

AIRBOARDS DISCLAIMER

The following disclaimer must be read before taking part in our Airboarding activities.

I agree to the following when on an Airboard session:

- Airboarding is potentially dangerous and may cause serious injury. I engage in these activities at my own risk.
- The Airboard has a maximum weight allowance of 15 1/2 stone/100kg.
- No one under the age of 8yrs can participate.
- Long hair must be tied back, jewellery removed and objects removed from pockets.
- Participants must be wearing suitable footwear which is secured to the foot and has a flat sole.
- Airboarding is potentially dangerous and may cause serious injury. I engage in these activities at my own risk.
- Participants must obey all of the operator's instructions.
- Participants must be shadowed (aided by 2 other participant) until the staff member is confident of your ability
- Please make the staff member aware of any medical conditions that affect your ability to take part in this activity.
- Helmets are compulsory by ALL Users of the Airboard, and will be provided by the Airboard instructing team. All users will be required to wear appropriate protective equipment, including knee and elbow pads. Wrist pads must be worn while riding.
- All participants must ride within their ability.
- Participants who disregard rules or act in a manner that is dangerous or inappropriate may be asked to leave the activity.
- Participants cannot take part with gum or food in their mouth, or if under the influence of drugs or alcohol.
- You must not ride if you are pregnant, have any back or neck problems or have had an operation within the past twelve months.

In2action cannot accept responsibility or liability for any loss of, or damage to, personal equipment or belongings.