

HOUSE RULES - LICENSED BINGO

1. MEMBERSHIP - All persons over the age of 18 whose names appear on the Booking Form/ Application Form are automatically enrolled as members of the Club.

NOTE: Persons under the age of 18 years are forbidden by law from participating in games of Bingo. Children are not allowed to mark the books purchased by adults.

Day visitors are not allowed to participate. Bona Fide guests or members of the Club may purchase Bingo Books and participate in the games once they have signed the Visitors Book.

Employees are not permitted to play Bingo (whether in person or by proxy) at any time.

2. BOOK SALES - Books and Flyers can be purchased in the hour before commencement of play. Members must produce their Entertainment pass or Accommodation key when purchasing.

All Books and Flyers are sold as 2 to View, 3 to View or 6 to view and will be void if split

3. STARTING TIME - The game will commence as close as possible after the advertised time, as soon as the cash is reconciled and the prize information screen displayed.
4. PRIZE INFORMATION SCREEN - This shows the opening and closing number of the sequence of books sold, less any damaged books, together with the prize money available for that game.
5. SHOUTING HOUSE - It is the total responsibility of the player to make sure that they shout loud enough to stop the game. Once a number has been started it is deemed to be called and the last number called must be part of the winning claim.
6. CORRECT CLAIMS - When a member calls 'house', the claim is checked using the approved RNG Bingo Software:
 - a. If it is correct, the caller will go on to the next game.
 - b. If it is incorrect, the book is returned to the member and the game continues.
 - c. To collect a prize, the member must produce an entertainment pass or accommodation key and sign the 'Daily Reconciliation Form'.
8. THE GENERAL MANAGER holds a current Personal Gaming License and his decision on all the House Rules is final.
9. ONLY MEMBERS or their Bona Fide guests may play Bingo or Gaming Machines on these premises.
10. MEMBERS MUST NOT obtain Bingo books for non-members other than Bona Fide guests.
11. MEMBERS MUST NOT help any person to break these Rules.
12. ANY MEMBER OFFENDING will be immediately EXPELLED from membership.
